Brian is a trial attorney at Fried Rogers Goldberg LLC where he represents individuals who have been injured in motor vehicle collisions involving commercial vehicles all over the country. Since joining the firm in 2014, Brian has helped obtain over $37 million in total recovery for his clients including procuring a $5.7 million verdict in federal court with Joe Fried for their client who was involved in a collision with a US Postal Service vehicle.

Brian has been voted by his peers as a Super Lawyers Rising Star for three straight years; an honor that is reserved for the top 2.5% of eligible attorneys. Brian has extensive trial and litigation experience and knows and understands how insurance companies evaluate claims from his time as a defense attorney.

Brian joined the firm after working as an associate attorney with Nall & Miller, LLP for over two years. While at Nall & Miller, Brian gained extensive experience defending truck drivers and trucking companies. He also acted as National Products Counsel for the world's largest manufacturer of home appliances.

In September of 2012, Brian acted as second chair in a jury trial in Catoosa County Georgia where he and his co-counsel obtained a Plaintiff's verdict including an award for attorney fees.

Brian's career began at Appelbaum & Associates, P.C. where he represented MARTA, as well as numerous individuals and insurance companies in a variety of matters including cases involving automobile/bus accidents, premises liability and insurance coverage. Brian acted as lead counsel in two jury trials in Fulton County Superior Court, obtaining a directed verdict in one trial and a defense jury verdict in the other.

Brian also gained valuable experience presiding as an Administrative Law Judge for the Georgia Department of Labor in over 100 unemployment appeal hearings.

Brian earned a B.S. in International Affairs from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 2002 and graduated with Highest Honors. Brian earned his J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law in 2008.

Brian married his wife Katie in 2015 and they live in Johns Creek, Georgia with their four dogs. Brian is an avid golfer and diehard Georgia Tech fan (Go Jackets!) and Atlanta Falcons fan (Rise Up!).
