Bryan Green is a shareholder at Baron & Budd, P.C. in Dallas, Texas and heads the firm's Trucking and Catastrophic Injury Section. He leads an aggressive litigation team that handles a wide variety of cases with catastrophic injuries, including product liability cases and vehicle defects and failures. He has experience with traumatic brain injuries, amputations, spinal injuries, and wrongful deaths.

Bryan is an experienced trial attorney who has tried cases in courts across Texas, including obtaining multi-million-dollar trucking verdicts in 2018 and 2019. He's been a member of the National Trial Lawyers' Top 40 Under 40 since 2017 and has been selected as a Super Lawyers' Rising Star since 2018.

Prior to joining Baron & Budd, Bryan represented commercial truck drivers and trucking companies on the defense side. This experience gives him a keen perspective and understanding of both sides of the docket and all angles when investigating and evaluating a case.

Bryan graduated from Texas Tech School of Law in 2009 and is admitted to practice law in every state court and federal district court in Texas. Prior to law school, he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Denver. When not practicing law, Bryan enjoys spending time with his family, watching his kids' activities, traveling, and following the Dallas Mavericks.
