A graduate of Temple University School of Law, Marion Munley has represented individuals and families in complex personal injury litigation in state and federal courts for thirty years. Munley specializes in medical malpractice cases and cases involving heavy trucking accidents.

She is a member of the American Association for Justice, and currently serves as an At Large Governor on the AAJ Board of Governors. She is Vice Chair of the AAJ Trucking Litigation Group and Chair-Elect of the Women's Trial Lawyers Caucus. She also serves on the AAJ publications and retirement committees. She is a member of the Pennsylvania Association for Justice where she serves on the Board of Governors and on its executive committee.

Munley is the second woman in Pennsylvania to become Board Certified as a Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. Among her other professional affiliations are the American Board of Trial Advocates and the International Society of Barristers. She has consistently been named among: the Best Lawyers in America; Pennsylvania Super Lawyers; and Top 50 Women Lawyers in Pennsylvania. She was named Product Liability Lawyer of the Year, Allentown Metro Area, 2017, by Best Lawyers.

Munley's excellence in her profession is further demonstrated by her unwavering commitment to mentoring other women lawyers. Munley serves as co-chair of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Commission on Women in the Profession mentoring committee. In 2016, she received the Pennsylvania Bar Association Commission on Women in the Profession Lynette Norton Award for her dedication to mentoring other women lawyers.
