Sonia M. Rodriguez is a native of San Antonio. She has practiced law in Texas for nearly 25 years and has seen considerable success as a personal injury trial lawyer. Sonia has negotiated multi-million dollar settlements in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases and has tried cases throughout the State. She is the first Latina to obtain a verdict in excess of $1 Million in Val Verde County, Texas, in 2004.

Sonia partnered with Michael Cowen and Malorie Peacock in 2018, and now focuses her practice on litigation and trial of trucking and commercial cases nationwide.

Sonia is active in the State Bar of Texas and serves in a leadership capacity in various bar organizations. She has served on the Executive Committee of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association (TTLA) and is a Past-President of the San Antonio Trial Lawyers Association (SATLA).

Since 2005, Sonia has maintained an AV Preeminent rating by the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory. She has received numerous accolades for her work as a lawyer and for her involvement in the San Antonio community. Sonia was inducted into the San Antonio's Women's Hall of Fame (2009 – Law) and she has been recognized by TTLA with its Reich Chandler Outstanding Advocate Award (2015) and by SATLA with its Pat Maloney, Sr., Courage Award (2016).

Sonia is married to Jon Haynes; and they have two children. They enjoy movies and hiking.
