Brian is a Partner and National Trucking Trial Attorney at Fried Goldberg LLC in Atlanta, Georgia. Brian's practice is focused on catastrophic cases arising out of commercial motor vehicles collisions across the country. Prior to joining the firm in 2014, Brian worked as a defense attorney handling bus/truck wreck cases.

In 2016, Brian and his mentor, Joe Fried, obtained a $5.7 Million verdict in a federal bench trial representing a client whose leg was amputated following a collision with a US Postal Service vehicle after he attempted to go around the vehicle in his motorcycle in a "no passing" zone.

Over the course of his career, Brian has acted as trial counsel in four jury trials – all of which resulted in verdicts in favor of his clients.

Brian has an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell and has been voted as a Super Lawyers Rising Star for six straight years.

Brian earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in International Affairs from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 2002 and graduated with Highest Honors. He earned his J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law in 2008.

Brian married his wife, Katie, in 2015 and they live in Johns Creek, Georgia with their two children, Oliver and Adeline, and their two dogs, Brody and Hamilton. Brian is an avid golfer and a big Georgia Tech, Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta Braves, Atlanta United, and Atlanta Hawks fan.
